GENERAL SCHOOL LAWS.

[House Bill No. 165.]

AN ACT

To amend section 4002 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That section 4002 be amended so as to read as follows:

School-houses
and libraries:

Sec. 4002. For the purpose of increasing and maintaining the public library in said city, and the territory thereto attached for school purposes, such library board may levy annually a tax of six-tenths of one mill on each dollar valuation of the taxable property of the city, and the territory thereto attached for school purposes, to be levied, collected and paid in the same manner as are school taxes of the city; all money appropriated, received or collected by tax for the library, shall be expended under the direction of the library board in purchasing such books, pamphlets, papers, magazines, periodicals, journals and other property as may be deemed suitable for the public library, and in payment of all other charges and expenses, including compensation of the librarian, assistants and help that may be incurred in increasing and maintaining the library, and all claims against said fund shall be approved by the president and secretary of said library board and paid upon the warrant of the auditor of the board of education in the manner now provided by law for the payment of claims against said city.

Library tax, and how expended.

SECTION 2. That said section 4002 of the Revised Statutes, as amended May 16, 1894, be and the same is hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect from and after its passage.

Repeals.

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JNO. A. CALDWELL,

President of the Senate.

Passed February 27, 1900.

[House Bill No. 229.]

AN ACT

To amend section 3991 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio so as to allow certain school districts to issue bonds by submitting the question to a vote of the people.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That section 3991 of the Revised Statutes of the state of Ohio be and the same is hereby amended so as to read as follows:

School-houses
and libraries:

When and how question of tax-levy submitted to voters.

Sec. 3991. When the board of education of any district determines that it is necessary for the proper accommodation of the schools of such district to purchase a site or sites and erect a school house or school houses thereon, or to do either, or when it shall become known to a board of education that the money provided for the purchase of a site or sites and the erection of a school house or school houses is not sufficient therefor, and such board ascertains that the purchase of such site or sites and the erection and furnishing of such school house or school houses, or either, or the completion of a partially built or unfurnished school house or school houses for which a sufficient sum of money has not been provided, will require a greater tax upon the property of such district than the board is authorized by this title to levy, and that to provide means therefor it will be necessary to issue bonds, it shall make an estimate of the probable amount of money required for such purposes, or either of them, and at a general election, or a special election called for that purpose, shall submit to the electors of the district the question of levying taxes for such purposes or either of them, and the further questions whether the levy shall be made from year to year thereafter, and what amount shall be levied each year until the actual cost of such site or sites, the erection of such school house or school houses, or completion or furnishing or re-furnishing of same or either of them, is raised; and ten day's notice of such submission shall be given by the board by posters put up in five of the most public places in the district, which shall state the time, place and object of the election.

Repeals, etc.

SECTION 2. That original section 3991 is hereby repealed and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

A. G. REYNOLDS,

Speaker of the House of Representatives.

JNO. A. CALDWELL,

President of the Senate.

[House Bill No. 396.]

AN ACT

To amend section 3959, Revised Statutes of Ohio.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That section 3959, Revised Statutes of Ohio, be amended so as to read as follows: School funds:

Maximum of levy in Cincinnati.

Cleveland.

All other district except —

Certain Hamilton county and all special and village districts.

When and for what purposes greater tax may be levied.

Repeals, etc.

Sec. 3959. Such estimate and levy shall not exceed, in cities of the first grade of the first class, three and one-fourth mills, provided, however, that the boards of education in said cities may levy one mill additional for every five thousand pupils over and above twenty-five thousand enrolled in the public schools of said cities, which levy, however, shall in no case exceed four and one-tenth mills; and in cities of the second grade of the first class such estimate and levy shall not exceed seven mills on the dollar of valuation of taxable property; provided, however, that boards of education in cities of the second grade of the first class may levy, in addition to the seven mills aforesaid, a tax of not to exceed one mill on the dollar of valuation of taxable [property] within said district which said levy shall be used for the purchase of school house sites and the erection of school buildings thereon and for no other purpose whatever, and for the purpose of paying for such sites or for the construction of such buildings such boards of education may issue certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of such levy, payable at such times not exceeding one year from date of issue as they may designate, but bearing no interest before maturity. And in all [other] districts, except those hereinafter named, such estimate and levy shall not exceed seven mills on each dollar of valuation of taxable property; provided, however, that in counties containing a city of the first grade of the first class, in districts outside such city in which a high school is maintained, and in all special and village districts of any county in the state, such estimate and levy shall not exceed ten mills on each dollar of valuation of taxable property; but a greater tax than is authorized above, except in city districts of the first class, may be levied for either of the purposes specified in section 3958 if the proposition to make such levy shall have been first submitted by the board of education to a vote of the electors of the school district, under a resolution prescribing the time, place and manner of voting on the same, and approved by two-thirds of those voting on the proposition, notice of which election must be given by publication of the resolution for three consecutive weeks prior thereto in some newspaper published and of general circulation in the district or by posting copies thereof in five of the most conspicuous places in the district, for a like period if no such paper is published therein.

SECTION 2. Said original section 3959 is hereby repealed and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

AN ACT

To amend section 3951 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, as amended March 9, 1896, and appropriating the increased levy therein provided.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

SECTION 1. That section 3951 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio as amended March 9, 1896, be amended so as to read as follows:

School funds:

Sec. 3951. For the purpose of affording the advantages of a free education to all the youth of the state, there shall be levied annually a tax on the grand list of the taxable property of the state, which shall be collected in the same manner as other state taxes and the proceeds of which shall constitute "the state common school fund;" and for the purpose of higher, agricultural and industrial education, including manual training, there shall be levied and collected in the same manner, a tax on the grand list of taxable property of the state, which shall constitute "the Ohio State University fund." The rate of such levy in each case shall be designated by the general assembly at least once in two years; and if the general assembly shall fail to designate the rate for any year, the same shall be for "the state common school fund," one mill; and for the "Ohio State University fund" fifteen one-hundredths of one mill, for the years 1900 and 1901, and thereafter one-tenth of one mill upon each dollar of valuation of such taxable property; provided, that the five one-hundredths of a mill increase of levy for the Ohio State University fund" herein provided shall be used solely for the erection and equipment of buildings for said university.

"The state common school fund" and "the Ohio State University fund."

Purpose of increase of levy.

SECTION 2. There is hereby appropriated from the moneys raised or coming into the treasury from the increase of the levy for the Ohio State University herein provided, for the last three quarters of the fiscal year ending Nov. 15, 1900, and the first quarter of the fiscal year ending Nov. 15, 1901, the sum of ninety thousand dollars, or so much as may come into the treasury from said increased levy; and for the last three quarters of the fiscal year ending Nov. 15, 1901, and the first quarter of the fiscal year ending Nov. 15, 1902, the sum of ninety thousand dollars, or so much as may come into the treasury from said increased levy.

Appropriation of increase levy.

SECTION 3. Said section 3951 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, as amended March 9, 1896, is hereby repealed, and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

To amend sections 3999a and 3999c, and to supplement section 3999 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, as amended April 21, 1898 (93 O. L., 192), with sectional numbering indicated.

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

School-houses
and libraries:

SECTION 1. That sections 3999a and 3999c of the Revised Statutes of Ohio be amended so as to read as follows:

Residents of Hamilton county entitled to use of city library.

Sec. 3999a. Each and every resident of the county within which is situated any city of the first grade of the first class, having therein established a public library, shall be entitled to the free use of such library, reading rooms and any branch or department of the same, and all the privileges thereof, upon such terms and conditions not inconsistent herewith, as the board of trustees of such library may prescribe.

Tax for library purposes in Cincinnati.

Sec. 3999c. For the purpose of increasing, maintaining and managing the public library in cities of the first grade of the first class, for which a board of trustees shall have been appointed, as provided in section 3999, the said board of trustees may levy annually a tax of not exceeding five-tenths of a mill on each dollar valuation of the taxable property of the county wherein is situated such city, to be assessed, collected and paid in the same manner as are other taxes levied throughout the county. Said levy shall be certified by said board of trustees to the auditor of the county in which said city is situated, and shall be placed by said auditor on the tax duplicate and collected as other taxes. The money realized from said levy, and all moneys received or collected by said trustees for the library, shall be placed in the treasury of said county, subject to the order of said board of trustees of said library. Said fund shall be known as the library fund of said county, of which the county treasurer shall be the custodian, and no money shall be drawn therefrom, except upon the requisition of the board of trustees of said library, certified by the president and secretary of said board, directed to the county auditor, who shall draw his warrant upon the county treasurer therefor. Any part of said funds unexpended during any year shall remain to the credit of said library fund.

SECTION 2. That section 3999 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, as amended April 21, 1898 (93 O. L., 192), be supplemented with sectional numbering as follows:

Sec. 3999e. No member of any of the boards exercising the power of appointment of the trustees of the public library, as provided in section 3999, shall be appointed or elected a member of said library board.

Removal of high school teachers.

When board shall appoint high school teachers.

provided, further, that whenever the power to appoint teachers in the public schools of such city district of the first grade of the first class is not given by the law of the state to the superintendent of the public schools or not given to him by the board of education of such city district in pursuance of the law, then said union board of high schools, or other separate board, shall appoint such teachers in the high schools to serve as above provided, with power of removal as above provided. The provisions of this section relating to the appointment and terms of teachers shall not apply to the appointment or term of any superintendent or superintendents of schools of such city districts.

Teachers' pension fund.

Sec. 3897b. In order to create a fund to be known as the "school teachers' pension fund," two dollars a month for each and every school month shall be deducted by the proper officers from the salaries paid to all teachers of said city district of the first grade of the first class, including the teachers of the high schools of said city district, and paid into the city treasury to the credit of said fund, to be used exclusively for pensions for teachers as herein-after provided. All moneys received from donations, legacies, gifts, bequests or from any other source shall also be paid into said fund or into a permanent fund, only the interest of which may be applied to the payment of pensions, but no taxes shall be levied or any other public moneys be appropriated for said fund, except as herein provided.

Retirement and pension of teachers.

Sec. 3897d. Said board of education of said city district and said union board or other separate board having the control and management of the high schools of said city district shall each of them have power by a majority vote of all the members composing said board to retire on account of physical or mental disability any male or female teacher under such board who shall have taught for a period aggregating twenty (20) years, whether before or after, or partly before or after the passage of this act; provided, however, that three-fifths of said period of service shall have been rendered by said beneficiary in the public schools or the high schools of said city district, or in the public schools or high schools of the county in which said city district is located. The term "teacher" under this act shall include the superintendent of schools, all superintendents of instruction, principals, special teachers, and teachers employed by either of said boards. Any teacher shall have the right to retire and become a beneficiary under this act who shall have taught for a period aggregating thirty (30) years, whether before or after, or partly before or after the passage of this act; provided that three-fifths of said term of service shall have been rendered in the public schools or the high schools of said city district, or in the public schools or high schools of the county in which said city district is located. Each teacher so retired or retiring shall be entitled during the remainder of his or her natural life to receive as pension, annually, the sum of ten ($10) dollars, for each and every year of service rendered as teacher, but in no event shall such pension paid to any teacher exceed the sum of five hundred ($500) dollars in any one year, and said pension shall be paid monthly during the school year; but in no event shall such pension be paid to any teacher until such teacher shall contribute or shall have contributed to said fund a sum equal to twenty ($20) dollars a year for each and every year of service rendered as teacher, but in no event shall this sum exceed six hundred ($600) dollars; but should any teacher retiring be unable to pay the full amount of this sum before receiving a pension, the board of trustees shall, in paying the annual pension to such retiring teacher, withhold on each month's payment twenty per cent. thereof, until the full amount as above provided shall have been thus contributed to the fund; provided, further, that if said pension fund shall at any time be insufficient to meet the pensions so provided for that during the period that such fund is insufficient to make such payments, the amount in said fund during said period shall be pro-rated between the parties entitled thereto. No payments shall be made to any beneficiary, nor shall any teacher retired or retiring be entitled to any payment under the provisions of this act prior to July 1st, 1899.

"Teacher" defined.

Amount of pension.

Sec. 3897h. Any teacher who shall resign or be removed for cause as aforesaid, shall upon application within three (3) months after date of such resignation or removal be entitled to receive one-half of the total amount paid by such teacher into such fund. In case of the death of any teacher, the heirs, legatees or assigns of the deceased teacher shall be entitled to receive one-half of the total amount paid by such teacher into such fund, upon application therefor with proof of claim to the satisfaction of the board of trustees.

Rebate in case of resignation or renewal.

Heirs, legatees or assigns of deceased teacher entitled to half amount paid.

SECTION 2. That said act entitled "An act to amend section 3897 of the Revised Statutes, and supplementary thereto," passed April 14th, be supplemented as follows:

Sec. 3897i. The board of trustees shall make such rules and regulations as it may deem expedient or necessary for its government.

votes are cast in favor of centralization than against it, at such election, it shall then become the duty of the board of education, and such board of education is required to proceed at once to the centralization of schools of the township and if necessary, purchase a site or sites and erect a suitable building or buildings thereon; provided, that if, at the said election, more votes are cast against the proposition for centralization than for it, the question shall not again be submitted to the electors of said township district for a period of two years.

Conduct of election.

SECTION 3. All elections ordered by a board of education in pursuance of section two of this act shall be held at the usual place or places of holding township elections, at a regular or special election as may be determined by the board and notice shall be given and the election conducted in all respects as provided by law for the election of township officers, and the ballots shall have printed thereon: "For centralization—Yes." "For centralization—No."

Submission of question of issuing bonds.

SECTION 4. Should the board of education deem it necessary to issue bonds to purchase a site or sites or erect a building or buildings for the purpose of such centralization, then the election shall be conducted as provided in section three of this act, but in such case the ballots shall have printed thereon: "For levying a tax to purchase—— site (or sites) and erect——building (or buildings) for the centralization of schools at a cost not to exceed $——— yes." "For levying a tax to purchase—— site (or sites) and erect—— building (or buildings) for the centralization of schools at a cost not to exceed $———, no." and if more votes are cast in favor of levying said tax for said purpose than against said proposition, at such election, it shall be the duty of the said board of education, and the board of education is authorized to issue bonds and sell the same as provided by law and to levy a special tax to provide for the payment of the same together with interest thereon; provided, said levy shall not in any one year exceed five mills on the dollar valuation and said bonds shall not bear more than six per cent. interest and shall not be sold at less than their face value.

Board of education; election and term.

SECTION 5. In a township district in which proceedings have been had under the preceding sections of this act and the vote has been favorable for centralization, there shall be an election held on the next succeeding first Monday of April for the election of a board of education, consisting of five members elected at large in said township district; one of whom shall serve three years, two for two years and two for one year; and two members shall be elected annually thereafter for a term of three years, except every third year but one shall be elected for three years. Said election shall be held at the annual voting place or places in said township, by the regular election officers and shall be conducted in all respects as provided by law for the election of township officers; provided, there shall be a separate ballot box, poll books and tally sheets, and said election officers shall receive no extra compensation for such services.

SECTION 6. Upon the election, qualification and organization of the board of education provided for in section five of this act, the board of education previously existing in said township district shall cease to exist and the same is hereby abolished and the board of education provided for in this act shall be considered the successor of the former township board.

Abolishment of prior existing board; its successor.

SECTION 7. The clerk of the township shall be ex officio member of the board of education, provided for by this act and shall be clerk thereof; the treasurer of the township shall be ex officio treasurer of the board of education; provided, that in all other respects the law governing village boards of education shall govern and control all boards of education organized as provided by this act.

Township clerk ex-officio member of board and clerk. Township treasurer ex-officio treasurer of board. What laws govern board.

SECTION 8. Boards of education in township districts organized as provided for by this act are required to maintain and support a graded course of instruction, and may include a high school course of not less than two years; they are also required to furnish transportation to and from school, to all pupils living more than three-fourths of a mile from the central building, said distance to be measured from the enclosure immediately surrounding their residence to the school-house property, along the nearest public highway.

AN ACT

To amend an act entitled "An act to amend section 3959 of the Revised Statutes of Ohio, as amended April 10, 1896."

Be it enacted by the General Assembly of the State of Ohio:

School funds:

SECTION 1. That section 3959 of the Revised Statutes as amended April 10, 1896, be amended to read as follows:

Maximum levy.

SEC. 3959. Such estimate and levy shall not exceed, in cities of the first grade of the first class, three and one-fourth mills, provided, however, that the boards of education in said cities may levy one mill additional for every five thousand pupils over and above twenty-five thousand enrolled in the public schools of said cities, which levy, however, shall in no case exceed four and one tenth mills; and in cities of the second grade of the first class such estimate and levy shall not exceed eight mills on the dollar of valuation of taxable property for the year 1900, nor more than seven mills on the dollar of valuation of taxable property thereafter; provided, however, that boards of education in said cities of the second grade of the first class may levy, for the year 1900, in addition to the eight mills aforesaid, and thereafter may levy in addition to the seven mills, a tax not to exceed one mill on the dollar of valuation of taxable property within said district which said levy shall be used for the purchase of school-house sites and the erection of school buildings thereon and for no other purpose whatever, and for the purpose of paying for such sites or for the construction of such buildings such boards of education may issue certificates of indebtedness in anticipation of such levy, payable at such times not exceeding one year from date of issue as they may designate, but bearing no interest before maturity. And in all other districts, except those hereinafter named, such estimate and levy shall not exceed seven mills on each dollar of valuation of taxable property; provided, however, that in counties containing a city of the first grade of the first class, in districts outside such city in which a high school is maintained, and in all special and village districts of any county in the state, such estimate and levy shall not exceed eight mills on each dollar of valuation of taxable property; but a greater tax than is authorized above, except in city districts of the first class, may be levied for either of the purposes specified in section 3958 if the proposition to make such levy shall have been first submitted by the board of education to a vote of the electors of the school district, under a resolution prescribing the time, place and manner of voting on the same, and approved by two-thirds of those voting on the proposition, notice of which election must be given by publication of the resolution for three consecutive weeks prior thereto in some newspaper published and of general circulation in the district, or by posting copies thereof in five of the most conspicuous places in the district, for a like period if no such paper is published therein.
